

Experiential Learning Graduate Credit Assignments

Active Learning Assessment #1

Think about your Experiential Learning Opportunity and all of the activities or assignments that you engaged in during this workshop/experience.

1. Identify an activity or assignment (artifact) from this experience that may be used and submitted as evidence of meeting one of the following InTASC Standards (5, 6, 7 or 8). Choose one standard for this assignment.
2. In a Word Document of approximately 750-1000 words, provide the following:
 - a description of the activity (lab, field trip, guest speaker, etc.) or assignment (artifact) and an explanation of how it demonstrates your achievement related to one of the InTASC Standards
 - two or more specific examples of how you will change some aspect(s) of your professional practice
 - a description of how the changes you plan to implement will enhance the teaching/learning process and positively impact student learning

Active Learning Assessment #2

Once again, think about your Experiential Learning Opportunity and all of the activities or assignments that you engaged in during this workshop/experience.

1. Identify another activity or assignment (artifact) from this experience that may be used and submitted as evidence of meeting one of the following InTASC (5, 6, 7 or 8). Choose one standard for this assignment.

Note: You must choose a different artifact and InTASC Standard from those chosen for Active Learning Evidence - Assignment #1.

2. In a Word Document of approximately 750-1000 words, provide the following:
 - a description of the activity (lab, field trip, guest speaker, etc.) or assignment (artifact) and an explanation of how it demonstrates your achievement related to one of the InTASC Standards
 - two or more specific examples of how you will change some aspect(s) of your professional practice
 - a description of how the changes you plan to implement will enhance the teaching/learning process and positively impact student learning
